Location

Lingfield College, set in the picturesque Surrey countryside, offers a stunning 40-acre campus with a wide range of indoor and outdoor facilities, making it the ideal setting for any occasion. Whether you're planning a conference, running a rehearsal, or hosting a special event, our campus provides a versatile and professional backdrop.

We are proud to open our doors to the wider community and welcome the opportunity to share our outstanding facilities. Many of our spaces are available to hire outside of school hours and during holidays, offering the flexibility and environment you need to bring your plans to life.

We have ample parking spaces available across both sites, conveniently located near our facilities. In addition, outside our Performing Arts Centre, we have plenty of space to load and move equipment into our buildings efficiently and with no added stress.

We've hired the venue for many years and being a long-term hirer we continually appreciate the excellent facilities and reliable support. Parents love the clean, modern environment and it is always very welcoming. We enjoy being part of Lingfield College.

Auditorium

The Auditorium forms part of the Performing Arts Centre and offers a raised stage and flexible layout, making it ideal for large-scale events.

With capacity for up to 400 guests in theatre-style seating, this versatile space can be used for talks, conferences, exhibitions, fairs, performances, and more. The clear stage view, specialised lighting and sound, and retractable screen ensure a high-quality experience for both performers and audiences.

The space is available for hire during evenings, weekends, and school holidays. It connects easily to breakout areas, including the Dining Hall, Drama Studios, and Music Classrooms.

A smaller hall is also available on our Prep School site, seating up to 150 theatre-style, with a raised stage, adjoining drama studio and kitchenette.

Barnes Suite

Located on the upper floors of Le Clerc, a beautiful Georgian house at the heart of the Senior School, the Barnes Suite is a quiet and characterful meeting room that once served as a nun's sleeping quarters.

Now thoughtfully modernised, it provides a private, professional space for board meetings, interviews, one-to-one sessions, and exams. Seating 6–8 people boardroom style, the room features contemporary furnishings, bold design accents, and is equipped with a screen and whiteboards.

Individual workspaces are also available, making the Barnes Suite a versatile option for focused, small-group use.
